SEASON REVIEW 2021-2022

FLORIDA WOMEN'S BASKETBALL

2021-22 SEASON REVIEW

The 2021-22 season was the 47th varsity season in UF women's basketball history.

Coming off of a turbulent offseason, the Gators bought in to then-interim head coach Kelly Rae Finley's vision to put together their best season since the 2015-16 campaign. With Finley at the helm, officially named head coach on February 28, 2022, for her first year, the Gators won 21 games, the most since the 2105-16 campaign. Their high-level of play also resulted in an at-large bid to the NCAA Tournament as well since the same season, earning a No. 10 seed before falling to UCF in the opening round of the tourney. Facing no shortage of elite competition along the way, the Orange & Blue defeated five ranked squads during the season, the most for a Florida team since 2006. The impressive improvement in 2021-22 saw the Gators reach their highest ranking in the AP Poll since 2008-09 at 15th. As a results of the buy-in and turnaround of Florida women's basketball, Kelly Rae Finley was named the Spalding Maggie Dixon Rooke Coach of the Year by the WBCA.

Competing in the loaded SEC, which sent eight teams to the NCAA Tournament, Florida captured 10 league wins for just the fourth time in program history. On the road in the SEC, Florida captured an impressive six victories, the most for UF since the 2000-01 season. The Gators' hot-streak began in College Station, Texas, as UF had to overcome a 19-point deficit to defeat No. 25 Texas A&M and earn their first ever win in College Station. Florida also handed No. 23 Kentucky their worst home loss since Jan. 27, 2008 with a 77-52 victory in Lexington, Ky. At home, Florida earned their largest margin of victory over a top-10 school with an 84-59 win over No. 7 Tennessee. The victory marked the first time the Orange & Blue had ever defeated the Lady Vols by more than 10 points and it was Tennessee's worst loss to an unranked opponent since the AP Poll debuted in 1976. Even during the nonconference, the Gators were taking care of business, winning 10 games out of conference for the first time since 2015-16.

Individually, several Gators put together strong campaigns that impacted the success of the season. During the 2021-22 campaign, Kiara Smith averaged 14.6 points, 5.5 rebounds, 4.6 assists and 2.4 steals per game. In Southeastern Conference play, Smith has raised her level even further, averaging 17.4 points, 6.1 rebounds, 5.1 assists and 2.3 steals per game, helping her to two SEC Player of the Week honors during the year. The District Heights, Md., native has scored in double-figures 24 times this season, including a season-best 27 points in a comeback victory at No. 25 Texas A&M. With her SEC postseason honors, Smith became just the third Gator to be named to the SEC All-Defensive team, joining Jennifer George (2013) and Simone Westbrook (2016) while also becoming the first Florida women's basketball athlete to earn First Team honors since Ronni Williams in 2017. Smith's efforts led to her being named a region finalist for the 2022 Women's Basketball Coaches Association NCAA Division I Coaches' All-America team as well.

Freshman Alberte Rimdal also picked-up SEC honors, being named to the SEC All-Freshman Team. It marked the third-straight year the Gators have had a freshman on the team. The Koge, Denmark native was named the USBWA National Freshman of the Week on Jan. 25 and SEC Freshman of the Week on Jan. 18. Rimdal averaged 5.3 points, 1.1 rebounds while shooting 38.9% from deep in SEC play.

Newcomer Zippy Broughton also played a key role in Florida's resurgence. Broughton put together an impressive first season with the Gators after transferring from Rutgers, averaging 10.5 points, which was third on the team, 4.0 rebounds, 1.9 assists and 1.4 steals per game. Broughton was even more impressive in Southeastern Conference play, averaging 13.7 points, 4.5 rebounds, 2.6 assists and 1.7 steals per game in 14 games played. The Wetumpka, Ala., native, who started in 19 of her 30 games played, scored in double-figures 17 times, including three games with 20 or more points. She recorded a career-high 28 points in a comeback victory over No. 25 Texas A&M, a game which proved to be the turning point for the Gators' season. Broughton recorded a stretch of 11-consecutive games in double-figures during SEC play, including 21 points on the road at Mississippi state on Feb. 10. In the absence of Kiara Smith at the SEC tournament in March, the senior put up 26 points to lead the Gators offensively against Ole Miss in the quarterfinal round. She also tallied 12 points, eight rebounds and six assists against UCF in the opening round of the NCAA Tournament.

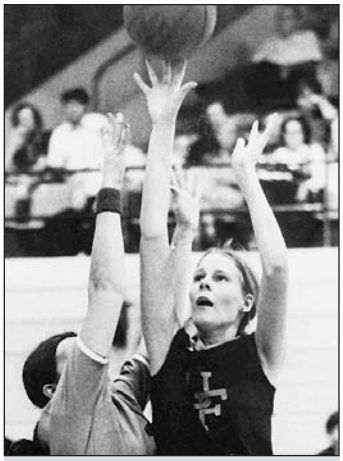
HISTORY OF FLORIDA WOMEN'S BASKETBALL



Sue Chambers was the first woman to receive a basketball scholarship at UF.

Winter 1972 – Dr. Ruth Alexander, Donna Deutsch, Mimi Ryan and Linda Hall Thornton, with the assistance of Dr. Clifford Boyd, write the official proposal suggesting guidelines for an intercollegiate athletics program at the University of Florida.

March 1972 – The University of Florida's Faculty Committee on Intercollegiate Athletics unanimously approves the proposal with the effective date to be the 1972-73 school year.

1973-74 school year – The inaugural UF women's basketball squad is a club team and posts an 11-8 record under coach Darlene Wyrnak, who is a graduate assistant at the school. Members of that team include Valerie Bazarte, Susie Brownlee, Sue Chambers, Emma Gracey, Vicky Lavinsky, Cassie Macias, Kathy Wagner and Monte Wynn.

July 1974 – Dr. Paula Welch is hired as the Lady Gators first official coach and teaches in the Women's Physical Education Department.

Jan. 13, 1975 – Florida makes its varsity debut in Alligator Alley, but Valdosta State spoils the team's opener, defeating UF 57-47 despite 17 points from Sue Chambers.

Jan. 18, 1975 – Emma Gracey's 14 points leads the Lady Gators to their first-ever win, a 51-47 victory over Rollins College and sparks a seven-game winning streak.

July 21, 1975 – Guidelines for the Education Act of 1972, Title IX, is signed into law by U.S. President Gerald R. Ford.

Feb. 29, 1976 – The Lady Gators steal front page sports headlines in The Gainesville Sun, which reviews the squad's three-game sweep, capped by a 53-39 victory over Florida State, that gave UF its first state championship ever in women's team competition.

March 1976 – The team boards the UF University Athletic Association aircraft, "The Blue Goose," and travels to their first-ever Association of Intercollegiate Athletics for Women (AIAW) regional tournament held in Cleveland, Miss.

March 11, 1976 – UF downs Alabama 64-56 in the first round of the AIAW Regional III Tournament, but suffered their worst loss in program history later that same day, losing 132-49 to No. 4-ranked Mississippi College to end the season with a 16-8 record.

March 1976 – The College of Physical Education, Health and Recreation reorganize and eliminate dual teaching and coaching positions. Welch, who had planned to continue both, resigns as coach so she can devote more time to teaching and researching sport history.

1976-77 season – Cathy Davis, the trainer during the previous season, is hired to double up her responsibilities as trainer and coach, while completing her master's degree.

Nov. 13, 1976 – Freshman Quientella Bonner becomes the first six-footer to play for UF. She goes on to grab a UF-record 1,321 rebounds during her four-year career, a mark that still stands.

Jan. 8, 1977 – UF logs its first-ever victory over a Georgia team, when Bonner tallied 28 points with 31 rebounds in a 79-67 win against Georgia Southern. Bonner's 31-rebound effort still remains the Lady Gators' and the SEC's all-time single-game record.

Robin Pokoj, '85

"One of the funniest moments I can remember was when (coach) Mickie DeMoss was giving us a pep talk at half time in the lockeroom and stomping her foot on the floor. Her heel came off and flew across the lockeroom but she didn't want to crack a smile and spoil the moment so she hobbled over to the chalk board and continued to draw plays."

Feb. 26, 1977 – UF captures it second straight FAIAW Tournament with a 72-60 win over FSU.

1977-78 season – The team finishes third at the FAIAW tournament and goes 2-1 in the AIAW Regional, but suffers the first losing season in program history with a 12-14 record.

March 8, 1979 – The Lady Gators advance to the AIAW Region III Tournament as a result of their runner-up state finish, but lose to Mississippi 101-78 to end the season. Future Lady Gator coach Carol Ross scores six points and grabs a team-high nine rebounds in helping her Lady Rebels to victory.

April 1979 – Davis decides not to pursue the Lady Gators' coaching position, which is expanded into a full-time job. UF is 38-40 during her three-year tenure.

In just her third season as Lady Gators Head Coach, Carol Ross was able to achieve a first in the program's 18-year history: earn a bid to the 48-team NCAA Tournament field. Led by senior captain LaTonya McGhee and junior guard Amanda Butler, Florida proved it belonged in postseason play. The Lady Gators opened the tournament on the road at Bowling Green State University on March 17 before a school-record crowd of 4,408 in Anderson Arena, which was also the third largest crowd attendance in a first round game. UF halted the Falcons' perfect 13-0 home record when McGhee banked in a 15-footer with two seconds remaining to give UF the thrilling 69-67 victory. Merlakia Jones led UF with 18 points and Bridget Pettis added 17 in the historic win. The Lady Gators traveled again in the second round, but came up short against postseason veteran Virginia in front of 5,740 Cavalier faithful. McGhee ended her career with a 14-point effort but more importantly helped lay the foundation for seven consecutive NCAA Tournament appearances.

1994

Under the leadership of senior captain Amanda Butler, the Lady Gators reached the NCAA Tournament for the second straight year. The Gators matched a school-record 22 wins and finished third in the SEC. Junior Merlakia Jones led UF offensively with 18.6 points per game, while DeLisha Milton averaged a double-double of 11.7 points and 11.5 rebounds during her freshman campaign. The Lady Gators earned the No. 4 seed in the NCAA West Region and were eligible to play host to their first round game, but were forced to travel to College Station, Texas, due to a Rod Stewart concert scheduled in the O'Connell Center. Florida rallied from a 14-point deficit against hosting Texas A&M and tied the score at 74 with 2:31 remaining after senior Kerry Cremeans caned a three-pointer off an assist from Butler. Takilya Davis later hit a jumper to give UF a 76-74 lead. With the score knotted at 76, the Gators turned the ball over with 21 seconds left and the Aggies converted two free throws with four ticks on the clock to end UF's season.

1995

The Lady Gators earned their third consecutive bid to the NCAA Championship, one of just 22 schools to advance to "The Dance" for the third straight year. Led by captains DeLisha Milton and Crystal Parker, the team won a school-record 24 wins and finished fourth in the SEC. During the first round of the NCAA East Regional in Charlottesville, Va., UF played Radford and easily defeated the Highlanders 89-49. Both Merlakia Jones and Milton produced double-doubles and Dana Smith contributed three second-half treys. In the second round, and for the second time in three years, the Lady Gators faced a ranked Virginia squad on its home floor. The team was in position for an upset, but the Cavalier proved to be too strong, winning 72-67. UF was led by Merlakia Jones' 27 points, who became the first Gator to eclipse the 2,000-point plateau, ending her career with 2,001. Freshman Murriel Page showed signs of the All-American she would later develop into, averaging 10.6 points and 7.2 rebounds during her rookie season.

1996

For the fourth time in school history, the Lady Gators secured a spot in the NCAA Tournament. Led by team captains DeLisha Milton and Mahogany Hudson, Florida earned the No. 5 seed in the Mideast Region and became one of 16 teams to earn four straight NCAA bids. Crystal Parker also became the first player in Lady Gator history to be a member of four NCAA Tournament teams. UF ran into red-shot San Francisco in the opening round, falling 68-61, as the Lady Dons marched into the Sweet 16 by upsetting host Duke in the next game. Former Gator Amanda Butler broke into the coaching ranks this year, when Head Coach Carol Ross hired her as an assistant coach at the start of the season.

1997

The 1996-97 academic year marked the 25th season of women's varsity athletics at the University of Florida and the Lady Gator Basketball team ensured it would not be soon forgotten, staging the most impressive postseason run in program history. First-Team All-American DeLisha Milton, along with fellow co-captain Mahogany Hudson, led the Lady Gators a 24-9 overall record. As the No. 3 seed in the Mideast Region, UF was selected to play host to an NCAA Sub-Regional for the first time and responded, thumping Florida International, 92-68. Murriel Page scored 35 points with 14 rebounds in a 92-78 victory over Southern California and the Lady Gators marched into the Sweet 16 for the first time in school history. UF's magical run did not stop there, as UF routed fifth-ranked and second-seeded Louisiana Tech, 71-57, to advance to the Elite Eight. The historical season finally came to an end when second-ranked and top-seeded Old Dominion managed a 53-51 decision, as UF had three shots in the final 10 seconds that would have tied the score, but all just rolled around the rim.

1998

Led by First-Team All-American Murriel Page and her fellow senior co-captains Mahogany Hudson and Dana Smith, the Lady Gators fought through an injury-plagued season to a 23-9 record, their fifth consecutive 20-win season and a second-place finish in the Southeastern Conference. UF became one of just 12 schools to compete in each of the last six NCAA Tournaments, while earning its second consecutive trip to the Sweet 16. UF was rewarded for its outstanding regular-season play, being named one of 16 schools to host an NCAA Sub-Regional, which it did for the second straight year. In a bracket plagued with upsets (highlighted by No. 16-seed Harvard defeating No. 1-seed Stanford), the third-seeded Lady Gators couldn't continue the fun as they fell to No. 2-seeded Duke, 71-58.

1999

The Lady Gators knew that matching the success of the past two seasons would be tough, especially after losing three key seniors. Even with an uphill battle, Florida, led by team captain Talatha Bingham, was still strong enough to earn its seventh consecutive NCAA Tournament bid - one of just 11 teams to compete in the "Big Dance" every year since 1993. UF was also one of a record-setting eight SEC schools to secure a bid. The Lady Gators would not dance long, however, dropping a frustrating 87-84 overtime decision to Arizona in the opening round.

2001

The 2000-01 season was one of the most exciting in school history, as the Lady Gators tied a school record with 24 wins and advanced to the second round of the NCAA Tournament. Captains Tombi Bell, Misty Knight and Tamara Stocks were fueled all season by what they felt was a snub from the 2000 event and led Florida to a second-place tie in the Southeastern Conference, winning a program-best 11 league games. This was the eighth overall trip to the "Big Dance" for the Gators and their third time playing host to the opening rounds.

2002

For the ninth time in 10 years, Carol Ross successfully led the Lady Gators to the NCAA Tournament. Stunningly, it would be her last because six days after the final horn sounded on Florida's opening-round loss, Ross stepped down as winningest head coach in school history, with a record of 247-121. The team was led by senior tri-captains Monique Cardenas, Lindsey DeLoach and Brandi McCain.

2004

Head Coach Carolyn Peck guided UF to the greatest one-year turnaround in school history, bouncing back from a 9-19 record the previous season to a 19-11 record and an NCAA Tournament bid. Captains Vanessa Hayden, Sarah Lowe and Kelly Stevenson led the Gators to a No. 5 seed in the NCAA Tournament and advanced to the second round for the sixth time in school history. UF overcame 16,000 deafening New Mexico fans at The Pit with an opening-round 68-56 win against the hosting Lobos, before falling in the next game to Baylor, which went on to win the NCAA title the following season.

2006

Fueled by two of the biggest upset wins in program history, the Gators earned their way back into the NCAA Tournament for the 11th time. Senior tri-captain Sarah Lowe hit the game-winning free throws with 3.2 seconds remaining in overtime to help the Gators upset No. 2 LSU, 79-78, in UF's final home game. A few nights later, senior tri-captain Brittany Davis poured in a career-high 29 points to help stun No. 5 Tennessee in the regular-season finale, as UF became just the second unranked team ever to defeat the Lady Vols in Knoxville. The Gators, who raced out to the best 11, 12, 13, 14 and 15-game starts in program history en route to a 21-9 overall record, received the No. 6 seed in the NCAA Albuquerque Region but dropped their opening-round game to New Mexico, 83-59.

2009

With senior Sha Brooks leading the backcourt and senior Marsahe Dotson patrolling the frontcourt, the Gators won four games against nationally-ranked teams, including three upset victories, and earned their 12th NCAA Tournament appearance. Amanda Butler became the sixth woman in NCAA history to play for and later coach the same team to a top-25 ranking, as the 2008-09 squad ranked as high as No. 9 in the Feb. 9 AP Poll. Newcomer Steffi Sorensen led a record-setting three-point shooting display, as the Gators set new marks with 221 three-pointers and hitting them with a 36.5 percent accuracy mark. UF downed Temple, 70-57, in the NCAA First Round and tied a program record with its 24th win of the season. The Gators fell in the next round to eventual champion Connecticut, which played on its home court and raced to an undefeated season.

2012

A veteran team that featured five seniors helped the 2011-12 Gators earn the program's 18th postseason appearance in the last 20 years, making its 13th trip to the NCAA Championship. Florida, which compiled a 20-13 overall record and the 12th 20-win season in Gator history, upset No. 16/19-ranked Ohio State in the first round before falling to top-ranked and eventual NCAA champion Baylor. The NCAA second-round appearance was the eighth in program history and the Gator's first since 2009, also the last time Florida competed in the Big Dance. As a team, Florida held opponents to 60.8 points per game - the second-fewest in a season in the 38-year history of the program. The 1983-84 squad held its foes to 59.1 points per game. Opponents shot 38.3 percent from the floor, the lowest since the 2000-01 Gators limited foes to a 36.9 percent clip. Florida also sported a +5.3 rebound margin, its best since the 2000-01 team held a +7.9 margin. Junior forward Jennifer George, who was voted by the league's coaches as a first-team All-SEC performer, led UF in scoring (12.8 ppg) and rebounding (8.8 rpg). Senior Jordan Jones did a bit of everything for the Gators during 2011-12, contributing 11.2 points, in addition to 3.8 rebounds, 1.8 assists and 1.1 steals, while hitting 67-of-198 treys (33.8%).

2014

Seniors Jaterra Bonds and Lily Svete headlined a very curious 2013-14 Florida women's basketball squad that entered the season with just nine healthy players after redshirt-sophomore Viktorija Dimaite re-tore the same left ACL that held her out of the entire 2012-13 campaign. Redshirt-junior Kayla Lewis was the only member of her athletic class and was joined by six sophomores, only two of whom where 'true' second-year players. Despite suiting up just eight players for the majority of the season, this 2014 band of Gators showed the grit and fight of their seventh-year head coach Amanda Butler and earned a spot in the NCAA Tournament as the No. 11 seed. UF faced its largest deficit of the game (12 points) with just over 15 minutes remaining, but outscored No. 6 Dayton in the second half, 54-37, to earn a date with No. 3 and host Penn State. UF was picked to finish 10th in the SEC during preseason polls by the league's coaches and media, but battled to place fifth and won 20 games for the fourth consecutive season.

FLORIDA'S NCAA TOURNAMENT TEAMS

While Florida's roster featured five seniors, it was truely a balanced effort that helped the Gators earn the No. 5 seed in the NCAA Tournament. On the 13-player roster... 10 Gators averaged at least 12 minutes of playing time per game; 10 Gators averaged at least 4.9 points per game; 11 Gators made at least one three-pointer; 11 Gators started at least one game during their respective Gator careers; 9 DIFFERENT Gators were UF's leading scorer in a game this season; 7 DIFFERENT Gators were UF's leading rebounder in a game this season; and 6 DIFFERENT Gators scored 20 or more points in a game this season. UF ranked No. 16 in the nation in scoring offense (77.4 ppg), however, the team's leading scorers - junior Ronni Williams and freshman Eleanna Christinaki - averaged just 11.1 and 10.4 points per game, respectively. Sophomore Haley Lorenzen averaged 9.3 points, while senior Cassie Peoples and junior Simone Westbrook were close behind at 8.8 and 8.0 per game, respectively. Florida was picked to finish 12th of 14 teams in the preseason SEC Poll by coaches and media and tied for fourth place in the final standings. The No. 5-seeded Gators played No. 12-seeded UAlbany (NY) in the NCAA opening round at the Carrier Dome in Syracuse, N.Y., where Florida had a comfortable 37-22 lead at halftime, but somewhere between the break and the start of the second half, the Gators lost their shooting touch. UAlbany outscored the Gators 19-7 in the fourth quarter when Florida hit just one field goal after Lorenzen put the Gators up 57-46 with 7:49 left. The Gators didn't score again until senior January Miller's basket with 0.4 seconds left. Florida shot just 20 percent in the second half (6 of 30) and missed 11 consecutive shots in the fourth quarter as the Great Danes went on a 15-0 run. In the end, the Gators lost an opportunity to keep their remarkable season alive, falling to the Great Danes, 61-59.

Led by graduate student Kiara Smith, the 2021-22 Gators earned the program's 16th NCAA Tournament appearance and their first since the 2016 campaign. In a year highlighted by statement victories, such as wins over No. 7 Tennessee, No. 11 LSU, No. 23 Kentucky and others, the Gators qualified for the tournament as a 10-seed in the Bridgeport Region. Unable to overcome late-season injuries, UF fell to UCF in the opening round, 69-52, in Storrs, Conn. The Orange & Blue defeated five ranked squads in a season for the first time since the 2005-06 campaign, as well as registering 10 SEC victories for just the fourth time in program history. As a team, the Gators found their identity through their defensive efforts, holding opposing squads to 64.8 points per game and allowing just 28.9% shooting from three-point range. Kiara Smith was the unquestioned leader, picking up First Team All-SEC honors and All-Defenisve Team honors after leading UF in points (14.6), rebounds, 5.5), assists (4.6) and steals (2.4) per game. Kelly Rae Finley, officially named head coach on Feb. 28 was named the WBCA Spalding Maggie Dixon Rookie Coach of the Year for her team's efforts.

^ The final official score of the Albany-Florida game remains 61-59 based on the final progressive team totals of the official scorebook, even though final statistics indicate 61-58. The mistake was made by the official scorer in awarding a free throw to Florida that did not occur. The score remains 61-59 because Rule 224.3 states: "When all three officials leave the visual confines of the playing area the end of the game, the officials' jurisdiction has ended and the score has been approved."

Credentials: All requests for game credentials MUST be placed through Florida Communications women's basketball contact Andrew Hile and received via email (AndrewH@gators.ufl.edu). All requests MUST be placed at least 24 hours prior to tip-off to ensure a reserved seat in the media area.

Photographers: A photography credential will be issued only to accredited photographers or those persons on special assignment. Photographers should check with UF staff for designated photo locations.

Parking: Parking is available in the Commuter Parking Lot, on the north side of the O'Connell Center. Spaces are usually ample on weekday evenings and on the weekends. There is no charge or pass required.

Wireless Internet: The UF Communications Office has access to wireless internet, which will be available on game-day inside the O'Connell Center. The guest login name and password that media can use free of charge will be provided in the press room 90 minutes prior to tip-off.

Interviews: All interviews with players and coaches must be coordinated through the Communications Office and requested 24 hours in advance to ensure availability excluding postgame interviews. Contact Sam Stolte for the weekly schedule, as it can change from day to day. During the week, interviews with players and coaches will take place prior to practice only if an individual request is made through Sam Stolte prior to a specific practice – no exceptions! The majority of all media interviews (non-game-day) take place on The Terry Frost Women's Practice Court.

Game Notes: The most recent media game notes are posted as a PDF file on the women's basketball page on Florida's official website (FloridaGators.com) as soon as they are completed. MEDIA SERVICES

Kyle Crooks also serves as the primary broadcaster for Florida's softball and women's soccer team.

The Gators feature some of the nation's greatest game coverage with radio or television broadcasts of every contest. Kyle Crooks, entering his fourth season with the Gators, handles the play by play duties while Brittany Davis, a veteran of several seasons at UF, adds the color commentary. Crooks and Davis are the primary pairing for nearly every road radio broadcast and often link up to cover home games on SEC Network+ or radio when the game is broadcast to a national audience.

All home games, not selected for national television, are streamed live on SEC Network+ while all games receive coverage via WRUF, which often features an online stream and traditional radio format.

Brittany Davis (2002-06) had a decorated career with the Gators and is a Gainesville native.

Megan Parler is a veteran video producer and assists with the team's broadcasts and creative content.

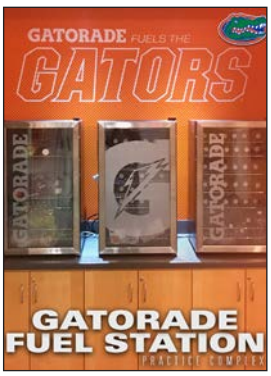
FLORIDA BASKETBALL COMPLEX

The Basketball Complex has undergone a few major 'facelifts' since its opening in October of 2001, most recently during the summer of 2013 when updated floor-to-ceiling graphics, display cases and video displays were installed throughout the building.

Florida's state-of-the-art basketball practice facility opened in October of 2001, with the initial $10 million securing the two-story, 47,505-square foot facility highlighted by full-sized practice courts for both the Gator men's and women's teams, in addition to the coaches' offices and team locker rooms.

FLORIDA BASKETBALL COMPLEX

During the summer of 2015, the weight room in Florida's Basketball Complex underwent a $1 million upgrade that doubled the size to 3,000 square feet and added a fueling station.



The Terry Frost Women's Practice Court features six baskets, Conner (Uniforce with NIKE Grind) wood floor and observation/video taping balcony. As part of the 2007 facelift, a Coach's Command Center with internal AV equipment is housed behind thick plex along the wall of the practice court for coaches and players to watch immediate on-court video.

JORDAN BRAND AND THE UNIVERSITY OF FLORIDA

Jordan Brand added another established collegiate program to its roster, welcoming the University of Florida to the family in December of 2017. Florida is just the fourth collegiate football program to represent the Jumpman and the brand's first college program in the Southeastern Conference.

The partnership includes the football team and the men's and women's basketball teams. The Gators' uniforms began to feature the Jumpman logo at the start of the 2018-19 season.

The Gators are one of just six women's basketball programs in the nation to be sponsored by Jordan Brand.

Continuing to add to a roster that represents greatness, the Gators' football program has won three national championships, eight conference titles and has produced three Heisman Trophy winners. Additionally, the Gators basketball programs have also achieved greatness, with the men's team making 18 NCAA Tournaments, five Final Fours and winning two NCAA Championships. Meanwhile, the UF women's team has made 15 NCAA Tournament appearances.

Jordan Brand now has a presence in five Division I conferences — the SEC, Big 10, Big 12, ACC and the Big East.

EXACTECH ARENA AT THE STEPHEN C. O'CONNELL CENTER

Exactech Arena at the Stephen C. O'Connell Center - Florida's game-day facility - underwent a $64.5 million renovation that re-opened its doors for activities in mid-December 2016.

As part of the renovation, Exactech Arena now features chair-back seating throughout the lower bowl, a state-of-the-art center court-hung scoreboard, new sound system and amenity upgrades in the new concourse areas.

The first Gator women's basketball game was played in Exactech Arena on December 28, 2016 versus Southeastern Louisiana - a 102-51 Florida victory!

Florida played its first 12 games of the 2016-17 season on the road during renovations.

A RENOVATED HOME WITH A NEW NAME

The UF Board of Trustees voted to approve a collaboration that will allow Exactech, a local-bred medical device company at the forefront of joint replacement, and the O'Connell Center to share the marquee at the home for Gators athletics since 1981. The agreement brings together two Gainesville-based organizations with more than 30 years each of collaborating on education, innovation and health care.

Exactech's naming agreement is broken into two phases; a 10-year, $5.9 million pledge with an additional five-year, $3.5 million option on the back end. The multi-million dollar value of the contract was instrumental in helping UF, which owns the O'Connell Center, and the University Athletic Association, the arena's prime tenant, proceed with the ambitious $69.8 million renovation of the facility that is scheduled for completion in December. Fox Sports represented UF in helping broker the agreement.

Still based in Gainesville, Exactech has more than 700 employees who design, develop, manufacture and distribute innovative orthopedic implants and surgical instrumentation for patients undergoing shoulder, knee, hip and spine surgery.
